Competitive Funding: $88,000

- Board Support: $112,080
- Getting Ahead in a Just Gettin' By World - Class based on the concept of Bridges Out of Poverty, which teaches a conceptual framework that emphasizes the causes of poverty and the differences and similarities between socio-economic classes. The class is taught to low-income families sharing these concepts to better motivate and empower families. $42,796
- Parenting Inside Out - An evidenced-based cognitive-behavioral parenting skills training program based on the Oregon Social Learning Center's Parent Management Training curriculum manual for at-risk families. Also a case management component. $124,211
- Project SEEK - Works with parents, caregivers, and children focused solely on the impact of incarceration. Provides much needed in-home support for children and families Countywide. Case managers will partner to insure the needs of the families and incarcerated parents are being met and services are not duplicated. Other partners include the Department of Juvenile Services and the Department of Social Services as referral sources. Case managers will also work with the parent's probation officer to determine the appropriateness of visitation between child and incarcerated parent. $203,907
- Competitive Award: Planning Grant to focus on childhood hunger and youth homelessness. The data collection and planning grant would identify gaps in resources and recommendations for evidenced-based programs or promising practices for both populations. $13,000
- Competitive Award: Reducing Childhood Hunger - The reducing program will provide client choice model, case management, and food advocacy. Instead of being a pre-packaged/pre-weighted system, the food pantry will be a self-serve model where client can "shop" for their own groceries using a point system, giving clients the freedom to choose foods that are most appropriate for their own family situation. This will allow staff to have more meaningful interactions with clients and help them become more self-sufficient, have more predictable food security, and make strides toward economic stability. The case management component will provide clients with a one-on-one time to address individual needs and develop strategies for financial management, discuss access to other government benefits, and formulate a plan for job searching if applicable. $75,000
