

ENOUGH INITIATIVE

For too long, concentrated, generational child poverty has persisted in communities across the state of Maryland and denied many children the ability to fulfill their full potential and determine their own future.

The Engaging Neighborhoods, Organizations, Unions, Governments and Households (ENOUGH) initiative is the first-of-its-kind state-led, place-based strategy to create poverty fighting opportunities driven by communities' lived experience and expertise, data and cross-sector partnerships. ENOUGH will surge resources into communities that have been disproportionately impacted by systems and policies that limit wealth creation and economic mobility. As Governor Moore says, "there's a measure of intentionality that drives concentrated poverty – so there needs to be a measure of intentionality in how we're going to address it."

ENOUGH THEORY OF ACTION

FY25 ENOUGH FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Winning proposals will receive a mix of public and private investment. In the first year, Maryland will invest $20 million into the ENOUGH Initiative. Program participants will also receive support as they seek additional local, state, federal, and private resources aligned with their community's vision and strategic plan.

The ENOUGH Grant Program includes (3) three tracks. Communities should review the eligibility criteria of each track to determine which aligns with their level of readiness. As communities engage in the work, they will have the opportunity to progress from one track to the next over time.

To apply for an ENOUGH Partnership Development Grant, communities must:

Meet Community Eligibility Criteria: Communities that have at least one U.S. Census tract where more than 30% of children are living in poverty and are served by a community school with a concentration of poverty level of at least 80% are eligible to apply. You can view an interactive map and list of eligible communities across Maryland here: <https://bit.ly/ENOUGHMap>.

Have an established set of core partnerships and a Lead Partner (known as the “Community Quarterback”): Applicants must document an established partnership of collaborators which includes: at least one community-based non-profit organization, one local government entity, and one local public school; Community Quarterbacks will serve as the lead applicant for the ENOUGH Grant Program and are responsible for coordinating across partner organizations, as well as developing partnership structures and processes to better organize across the community to end child poverty. The Community Quarterback organization is presumed to be responsible for compliance, reporting, and financial stewardship of the grant award, but a separate Fiscal Sponsor organization is permitted.
